

Transition and CE Requirements for 2012 Renewal **

A Sole Proprietor who is not a Managing Broker must transition to Managing Broker by 4/30/2012

Licensed as a Salesperson on or before 4/30/2011	Broker licensed on or before 4/30/2011 that will remain a Broker licensee (non-managing)	Broker licensed on or before 4/30/2011 and on file as managing broker w/IDFPR as of 4/30/2011 that will transition to Managing Broker	Individuals first licensed after 4/30/2011 as a broker and who remain a non-Managing Broker	Licensees who were not on record as managing as of 4/30/11 but took the hours necessary to become Managing Broker by 4/30/2012
NO RENEWAL UNTIL 4/30/2012 30-hour transition course and pass the exam OR pass the proficiency exam and 18 Hours of continuing education required: 9 core + 9 elective credits	12 hours of regular continuing education 6 core and 6 elective credits and no Broker Management	45 hour course and successful passage of the exam + 12 hours of regular CE, 6 core and 6 elective credits OR Pass the proficiency exam + 12 hours regular CE, 6 core and 6 elective credits AND 12 hour Broker Management course	30 hours of post license education 15 hours of which must be classroom before 4/30/2012	12 hours of regular CE 6 core and 6 elective credits AND 12 hour Broker Management course

 The Transition period runs from May 1, 2011 through April 30, 2012. Renewal is currently scheduled for April 30, 2012 for all brokers and managing brokers.