Anatomy of a Tax Return

Cost: $20 members, $25 non-members
Registration: 8:30 a.m., Seminar: 9 a.m.-Noon

You will learn:

- Why pay more in taxes than you may need to?
- Armed with the proper information can allow you more $ in your pocket each year
- Don't cheat yourself out of legitimate deductions
- Understand more of how to utilize report income and expense forms
- Make it all work in your favor and follow the rules at the same time

Anatomy of a Tax Return Schedule C - Independent Contract Filing and Form 8829 - Office in Home Deduction

This talk focuses on how to read a tax return for income tax purposes. Both tax forms will be discussed. How and when you file these two forms has a direct effect on your liability. Peggy Tracy will discuss little known deductions and credits to help manage your taxes. REALTORS® will also gain a greater understanding of Sole Proprietorship businesses and how they relate to the total financial picture. You will never look at your taxes the same way again.
