

As a founding member of the Delboccio | Marchetti Group and Broker with @ properties, Diane is also proud past recipient of Coldwell Banker's International Presidential Premier which represents the top 1% of all NRT Sales Associates in the Nation.

As a result of her professional and excellent customer service she has developed many personal friendships and client referrals that have brought her business to the successful level it is today. Her hard work and dedication are unsurpassed and her commitment to her clients is the foundation of her strong reputation.

In 2013, she ranked #4 Sales Associate in the Northwest Region for Sold properties among NRT Agents.

What I consider to be the secret to our success

I believe communication is the key to our success. I personally keep in touch with my clients by keeping them informed of market conditions, weekly marketing reports and much more. I always make myself available to answer their questions and concerns.

I believe in a team approach and have a highly trained staff that includes a personal assistant and transaction coordinator. Having an outstanding team is critical when offering the high level of care that I am committed to.