

"A valuable member of the Dawn McKenna Group, Lauren Walz serves as the DMG's Western Springs/La Grange market expert. As a lifetime resident of Western Springs and a graduate of Lyons Township High School, Lauren prides herself on her extensive community knowledge and market expertise. With over 40 million in sales in 2019, Lauren is committed to producing results for her clients.

Lauren attended the University of Iowa where she was four-year letter winner of the women's volleyball team as well as a four-time Academic All-Big Ten Conference awardee. After graduating with a double major in accounting and finance, Lauren started her career as a certified public accountant.

Shifting to the residential real estate market, Lauren received the Coldwell Banker "Rookie of the Year" award after her first year as an agent. Her analytical mind, hard work ethic, passion and keen eye for design, and relatable personality has helped her create an unparalleled service experience.

Lauren currently resides in the Forest Hills neighborhood of Western Springs with her husband and three young boys."
