A transplant to Chicago by way of Rochester, NY where she went to school at the Rochester Institute of Technology and Delaware where she grew up. Sam lives in the West Loop and simply LOVES it. City living offers tons and tons of options and opportunities to explore is both daunting and thrilling. She loves to check out Chicago sports from the big teams to the depth of women's offerings like the WNBA's Chicago

Sky, Chicago Force semi-pro women's tackle football, Windy City Rollers roller derby and even Northwestern's phenomenal lacrosse team. As an east coaster her sports heart is in field hockey, another great reason to head to Northwestern. She's not all about sports, however. She's been spotted at Chicago museums, ushering at the Goodman Theatre, exploring Chicago architecture, chowing down at the Taste of Chicago, volunteering at the Warrior Dash, Shamrock Shuffle and Chicago Marathon as well as playing at the dog beach to name just a few of her favorite things.

Sam is thrilled to be working at Dream Town Realty, a company that both compliments her team's not so inner geek and also supports the growth of the geek for the benefit of the team, the company and the industry.

Sam is passionate about technology both personally and professionally, her family - Jen her partner/wife together since 1992 and their 2 doggies - chocolate lab, AFIS (named after the fingerprint database) and black lab CODIS (named after the DNA database). Her family has an addiction in volunteering and giving back. Commonly in real estate, clients leave items behind in their property so she actively works to put useful items in the hands of people who can use them, from furniture to guitars to blenders and clothes, together her and her partner fill a 24 foot truck of donations each year with their very successful building drive. She continues to try and HACK the live/work balance by being a TRULY MOBILE and PAPERLESS Agent.
